

Head of Software Development (for Embedded Systems)

Responsibilities:

- Coordinating the software development team, in all stages of the development process;
- Acting as an interface and ensuring efficient communication with the Headquarters team (in Germany);
- Coordinating and ensuring the transfer of the software development activity to Brasov site;
- Providing support to the software development team so that the department's goals are met;
- Leading the software development projects for the control system of the Miele appliances;
- Elaborating and verifying the technical concepts and the SW architecture;
- Taking part in all stages of the SW development process: from the technical requirements, to the implementation, test and up to the supervision of the series production;
- Respecting the deadlines, content and costs according to forecasts and budgets;
- Maintaining a close and efficient collaboration with the other members of the development team (SW/HW), as well as with the other departments and with the client.

Requirements:

- University graduate: electronics, computer science or similar;
- Minimum experience: 3 years managing/leading a software development team;
- Relevant experience (minimum 3 years) the following areas:
 - C or C++ (preferably) software development for Embedded System as well as scripting language;
 - Elaborating documentation and test concepts;
 - Analyzing requirements and records;
 - Elaborating and performing module unit and integration tests;
 - Experience with V model SW development as well as with using Agile methods;
 - Application tools for development environments and Source Code administration systems;
 - Experience with model based development;
- English and German advanced;
- Analytical thinking;
- Ability to work and communicate effectively within a team;
- Very good planning and organizing abilities;
- Leadership.